

Daniel stays obedient to God

Daniel refused to eat the food which was forbidden for Jews like him to eat, and God blessed him by making him stronger and fitter than everyone else. Cut out the plate below and on one side, draw the food he refused to eat, and on the other side, draw a meal that he might have eaten instead.

