

Chasing after God's heart

What's in God heart that makes us want to chase after it? We know He loves us and has amazing plans for us, but what is it for you that makes you want to chase after Him with everything you are? Follow the instructions below to make an origami heart and then write on the front what aspect of God's heart you love the most.

