

Dove of Peace

Doves have often been used as a symbol of peace. They definitely show up in the Bible when Peace is needed (Noah and at Jesus baptism)

Read through the instructions and see if you can make an origami Dove to hang up or have in your room.

If the origami seems a little tricky, you can colour the dove found at the end of this resource.

Origami Dove

Before starting, make your A4 piece of paper into a square

1) Fold your paper diagonally in half and then in half again. Start with your paper in the position shown

2) Fold the bottom left of the top layer up to the top right corner.

3) Repeat on the back.

4) This is what you should now have

5) Make sure the paper is in this position

6) Fold one layer from the bottom corner to the top

7) unfold and reverse inside fold the last crease

8) Flatten the model again

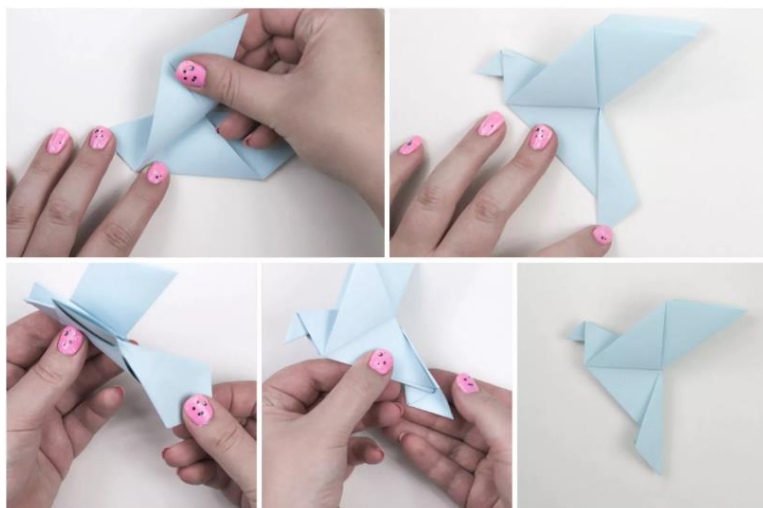

9) Repeat the last fold on the back. This is the view from top

10) Fold the head of the dove down

11) Inside reverse fold the head

12) Pull the beak until it is in the position you want

13) This is what it should look like

14) Fold one of the wings up and repeat on the back.

15) Fold the tail to meet the vertical line

16) Open the tail out and reverse fold the last crease.

17) Wrap the tail around the body.

18) You have made your DOVE!!
